

Summary of AG-039 United Nations Operation in Mozambique (ONUMOZ) (1992-1994)

Title

United Nations Operation in Mozambique (ONUMOZ) (1992-1994)

Active Dates

1983-1995

Administrative History

The United Nations Operation in Mozambique (ONUMOZ) was established on 16 December 1992 by Security Council resolution 797. Its purpose was to help implement the General Peace Agreement, which was signed on 4 October 1992 by the President of the Republic of Mozambique and the President of the Mozambican National Resistance (RENAMO) in order to bring an end to the civil war. During its two-years of operation, ONUMOZ helped to monitor and verify: the cease fire; the demobilization of armed forces and paramilitary groups; the collection, storage, and destruction of weapons; and the withdrawal of foreign troops. The mission also took part in the organization and monitoring of the national elections (27-29 October, 1994), participated in the removal of land mines, and provided resettlement assistance to internally displaced persons and refugees. The mission formally ended on 9 December 1994. Aldo Ajello of Italy served as Special Representative of the Secretary-General and Chief of Mission. Force Commanders were Major-General Lélío Gonçalves Rodrigues da Silva of Brazil (February 1993 - February 1994) and Major-General Mohammad Abdus Salam of Bangladesh (March - December 1994).

S-0382 Humanitarian Assistance 1987-1994

Scope and Content

S-0382 contains records concerning humanitarian activities of the United Nations Operation in Mozambique (ONUMOZ).

Humanitarian Assistance Component

The records of the Humanitarian Assistance Component encompass the documents of the United Nations Office for Humanitarian Assistance Coordination (UNOHAC) and the Reintegration Commission (CORE). UNOHAC was tasked with monitoring and coordinating all humanitarian assistance programs of United Nations agencies and non-governmental organizations operating in Mozambique. CORE was established under the General Peace Agreement to implement the social and economic reintegration of demobilized soldiers. The records for UNOHAC and CORE were arranged by different filing schemes; original order has been preserved. The filing scheme for each has been attached to S-0382.

United Nations Office for Humanitarian Assistance Coordination (UNOHAC)

Documents describe the coordination of humanitarian relief efforts among various agencies and organizations, including the World Food Programme (WFP), the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), Doctors Without Borders (MSF), the International Organization for Migration (IOM), Redd Barna (Save the Children Norway), World Vision Mozambique, and the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR).

Also included are: monthly reports sent from field offices to the Director of UNOHAC; reports of Field Officers' trips to provinces to assess areas of potential agency intervention; summaries of meetings between representatives of UNOHAC and non-governmental organizations on difficulties encountered, such as lack of road access, theft of goods, and locusts; reports assessing food needs and shortages; guidelines for food distribution to demobilized soldiers; reports detailing the activities of the Emergency Seeds and Tools Programme (PESU); and meeting minutes and statements of the Humanitarian Assistance Committee.

Records pertaining to refugees consists of: operation maps for the repatriation of refugees in Mozambique; reports describing refugee transport and logistics plans; reports of refugee movements at border entry points and reception facilities; reports on the repatriation of refugees from countries of asylum including Malawi, Zimbabwe, Tanzania, South Africa, Swaziland, and Zambia, and from within Mozambique; reports of UNOHAC officers on refugee resettlement in provinces; and statistics.

Records concerning the provision of health services include: summaries of meetings between UNOHAC and non-governmental organizations on health campaigns; reports of visits to assess health provisions in RENAMO-controlled areas; reports of visits to hospitals; and reports on the outbreak of bubonic plague.

Also included are records pertaining to primary, secondary, and adult education, as well as literacy programs and instruction conducted in native languages. These consist of: descriptions of educational activities in former RENAMO-controlled areas; reports on the role and activities of non-governmental organizations in the reconstruction of the education system; reports on the rehabilitation and reconstruction of schools; and documents describing procedures for reintegrating demobilized soldiers, refugees and displaced persons into the National Education System.

Reintegration Commission (CORE)

Records consist of: minutes, summaries of meetings, situation reports, and newsletters of provincial CORE offices. Documents for CORE's Conflict Resolution Team include: strategy, background and discussion papers; and reports of the Team's visits to districts. In addition, there are: records detailing the distribution of vegetable seed and tool packs for demobilized soldiers; records documenting CORE's implementation of the Reintegration Support Scheme (RSS); and reports of incidents involving demobilized soldiers, such as the setting up road blocks and the detainment of civilians.

S-1039 Electoral Support 1988-1994

Scope and Content

S-1039 contains records concerning electoral support activities of the United Nations Operation in Mozambique (ONUMOZ).

Electoral Division

Records of the Electoral Division consist of: codes of conduct for the electoral campaign and for political parties; summaries of meetings between representatives of the Electoral Division and representatives of political parties; reports of complaints, accusations and irregularities in the electoral process regarding intimidation, fraud, invalid registration, and embezzlement. There are also interviews with Afonso Dhlakama, leader of the Mozambican National Resistance (RENAMO), and Joaquim Chissano, leader of the Liberation Front of Mozambique (FRELIMO).

Records of the Operations Room document activities during the days leading up to, during, and after the presidential and parliamentary elections, which were held 27-29 October 1994. They consist of: situation reports on voting activities in provinces; logs of irregularities and incidents; memoranda on procedures for information flow during the election; and instructions and reporting forms for Electoral Observers and Provincial Coordinators.

Records of the National Elections Commission (CNE) consist of: correspondence concerning appointments; summaries of plenary sessions and deliberations; summaries of CNE meetings on logistics during the election; reports and memoranda concerning electoral campaigning; and discussion papers and workshop materials on civic education.

Chronological files consist of: papers on the role of and concept for operations of the Electoral Division; briefs on electoral law; guidelines for electoral observers and monitors; and internal correspondence.

Files on provinces include: summaries written by Provincial Coordinators on the political climate and the electoral process in each province; reports of visits of the Deputy Director of the Electoral Division to provinces; lists of political parties active in provinces; and notices for rallies and other events held by political parties.

S-1114 Military Support 1992-1995

Scope and Content

S-1114 contains records documenting military support activities of the United Nations Operation in Mozambique (ONUMOZ).

Military Force Headquarters, Maputo

Records consist of: drafts of the military division's contribution to the Security Council's report on Mozambique; and reports and memoranda concerning the locations of arms caches and the transportation and storage of weapons and explosives. Also included are guidelines on the following: the collection of weapons; handling of military collectable equipment; rotation of contingents; and conduct and discipline. Incident reports concern road blocks laid by demobilized soldiers and local militia, and demining activities.

Military Force, Northern Region, Nampula

Records consist of: minutes of Northern Regional Cease-Fire Commission (RCCF) meetings; reports of security arrangements carried out during the presidential and parliamentary elections of 27-29 October 1994; operation orders; deployment instructions; Force Commander's directives; and evacuation and security plans for the Northern Region.

Military Force, Central Region, Beira

Records consist of: inspection reports of military investigations of alleged cease-fire violations and criminal acts; security reports; and weapons collection summaries.

Military Force, Southern Region, Matola

Records consist of: minutes and agendas of the Southern Regional Cease-Fire Commission (RCCF); and memoranda concerning the ONUMOZ drawdown plan.

Military Observers, Maputo

Records consist of: reports to United Nations headquarters on military activities in Mozambique; reports on the closure of Assembly Areas; reports concerning the control of riots; reports on information gathering missions; monthly reports of the Liaison Cell; monthly reports on operations; and withdrawal plans for Military Observers.

Also included are correspondence and other documents regarding the following: road blocks laid by demobilized soldiers and local militia; demobilization procedures; disbandment of para-military groups; details of planning and set-up of Assembly Areas for demobilized soldiers; visits to Assembly Areas made by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General (SRSG), the Force Commander, Mozambican government officials, and foreign dignitaries; and instructions and forms for investigations of alleged cease-fire violations.

Military Observers, Northern Region, Nampula

Records consist of a variety of reports focusing on: incidents in Assembly Areas; the collection of weapons from paramilitary and militia groups; and the demobilization process. Also included are: evacuation and security plans; the Observer Group end of mission report; the ONUMOZ end of mission report; and reports on lessons learned.

Military Observers, Central Region, Beira

Records consist of: reports of incidents in Assembly Areas; mine incident reports; and notes on briefings for Team Leaders.

Military Observers, Southern Region, Matola

Records consist of: agendas, minutes and summaries of decisions of the Southern Regional Cease-Fire Commission (RCCF).

Technical Unit for Demobilization (TU)

Records consist of: minutes of meetings of the Technical Unit; notes on meetings between the Technical Unit, the Government of Mozambique, and the International Organization for Migration (IOM); procedures for Centers for Unassembled Troops (CTNA); guidelines for demobilization ceremonies; and records on the establishment and dismantling of Assembly Areas.

There also are a variety of reports, including: reports of meetings between officials of the Technical Unit, the Government of Mozambique, and RENAMO; field reports assessing supply levels and soldier morale in Assembly Areas, and the competence of Technical Unit Camp Officers (TUCO); and reports of the Information and Social Reintegration Programme

Also included are records pertaining to the food supply and medical assistance activities in Assembly Areas. These records include: minutes of meetings of the Food-Aid Subcommittee on Demobilization; correspondence between Technical Unit officials and World Food Programme (WFP) officials regarding projected food needs for the Assembly Areas, shipments of food to the Areas, and problems with shipment and distribution, such as theft of food by soldiers; and correspondence between Technical Unit officials and World Health Organization (WHO) officials regarding medical problems and outbreaks of disease in the Assembly Areas.

Records pertaining to vulnerable groups (defined as disabled soldiers, orphaned children, widowed wives of soldiers, pregnant women, and elderly civilians) include: reports of the Technical Unit's Vulnerable Groups Programme; procedures for identification, registration, and reintegration of soldiers belonging to vulnerable groups; and documents on providing food, transport, and medical examinations for disabled soldiers.

S-1803 Police Support 1988-1994

Scope and Content

S-1803 contains records of the Civilian Police headquarters located in Maputo, and records of the Civilian Police offices located in Nampula province.

Civilian Police, Maputo

Records consist of: briefing notes for Civilian Police meetings with the Special Representative of the Secretary-General (SRSG); reports of demonstrations of demobilized soldiers demanding payment of salaries; reports of the Liaison Office sent to the Police Commissioner documenting relations between the Civilian Police and the Police of the Republic of Mozambique (PRM); summaries of meetings between the Civilian Police and the PRM; and minutes of Civilian Police meetings with the National Police Affairs Commission (COMPOL).

Other records in S-1803 document: security arrangements for RENAMO leader Afonso Dhlakama's visit to Civilian Police posts; activities of Civilian Police members serving as security escorts for the delivery of national election materials to regional polling sites; and allegations of sexual abuse of local children by ONUMOZ personnel.

Also included are investigation and incident reports of theft, sexual harassment, rape, homicide, armed assault, arson, and kidnapping. These consist of case conclusions, witness testimony, incident scene sketches, and correspondence. Inspection Unit reports document observations made by the internal Inspection Unit about regional Civilian Police branches and internal departments.

Records pertaining to human rights include: reports on the Human Rights Training Course attended by Civilian Police members; reports of human rights abuses; and summaries of visits to prisons.

Civilian Police, Northern Region, Nampula

Records consist of: administrative correspondence; investigative reports; and lease agreements for premises used by the Civilian Police. Also included are documents describing Civilian Police posts throughout the Northern Region, which provide information about post locations and facilities, voter registration activity, and polling stations.
